The channel wise and line of business Commission or Remuneration shall be determined in accordance with the parameters specified under Clause 6.1 and 6.2 of this Remuneration Policy.

(a) Channel wise Commission or Remuneration payout structure

Channels	Aggregate Commission or Remuneration excluding GST rate upto (as % of GWP)
Individual Agents	20%
Point of Sales (Direct)	20%
Insurance Marketing Firm	20%
Corporate Agents-Banks/FII/HFC	35%
Corporate Agents-Others	60%
Insurance Brokers	25%
Web Aggregators	25%
Common Service Centres	30%

- Reward is part of the overall commission and RnR rate as stated in the table, however, Reward may be capped and negotiated with Insurance Distributor on case to case basis.
- Note that the Expense Management Committee exercises oversight to ensure that aggregate Commission rates do not exceed the prescribed rate at overall channel level. However, at respective Insurance Intermediary level, such rate may be different, including higher or lower, as may be relevant for each respective channel depending upon various market factors.

For the above - mentioned Commission or Remuneration, the Company may adopt different payout criteria for various categories of Insurance Distributors based on the following:

- Physical infrastructure being leveraged for the purpose of customer acquisition (example Company branch vs. Insurance Distributor branch, tele marketing setup etc.).
- Technology, process and systems being used e.g. whether provided by Company or jointly done by the Company and Insurance Distributor.
- Size of captive customer base and use of the base to cross sell insurance products.
- Analytics, marketing and campaign management efforts deployed by Insurance Distributor.
- Staff deployed by the Company vis-à-vis Insurance Distributor for the purpose of customer acquisition (example a Insurance Distributor with a large employee base, cross selling insurance, vis-à-vis individual distributor).
- Initiatives undertaken by Insurance Distributor for self-development and technology adoption such as trainings in the area of risk analysis, gap analysis, plan design, and use of new technology including adoption of AI, predictive modeling, data management as well investment in infrastructure, advertisement and such other items.
- Overall expense on commission is within the limit set out for EOM.

- Commission cost is neutral to the customer.

The EMC, from time to time may enhance or limit the scope and parameters. Further, the EMC may set limits on expenses against different parameters, keeping in view the business strategy, business performance and business priority of the Company from time to time.

(b) Line of Business wise Commission or Remuneration pay-out structure

Line of Business	Average Commission (% of GWP)	Maximum Commission (% of GWP)
Health Insurance	25%	75%
Personal Accident	30%
Travel Insurance	35%

7. Payment of Reward:

The Company shall determine Reward entitlement of the Insurance Distributors on the basis of the parameters as may be set out by EMC.

Other than the monetary incentives paid as rewards on the basis of pre-defined parameters and scales as set out by the EMC at the beginning of any financial year and monitored from time to time,

- a. the Company may declare and pay non-cash rewards to promote constructive competition amongst Insurance Distributors in the form of rewards and recognition programs, gifts and presents, trips and accolades etc., such amount if any shall be included for the purpose of computation and payment of Rewards.
- b. the Company may spend over and above the Commissions, on the welfare of the Insurance Distributors by undertaking their cost towards personal and family benefits such as gratuity, term insurance cover, group insurance covers etc.
- c. Over and above the responsibility of the Insurance Distributors, the Company may encourage them to equip themselves with the knowledge to and undertake activities such as risk analysis, gap analysis, plan design, predictive modeling, data management, Infrastructure, advertisement and such other items. The Company may bear the cost of such activities and reward the deserving appropriately.

The EMC, from time to time may enhance or limit the scope and parameters. Further, the EMC may set limits on expenses against different parameters, keeping in view the business strategy, business performance and business priority of the Company from time to time.
